

Transparency Serbia is pleased to invite you to participate in the work of the conference “Efficiency in Public Procurements“ after which press conference “Enforcement of Anticorruption Legal Framework in Serbia” will be organized.

Both events will take place on Tuesday, 26th of April, in the premises of Academic Club “Licej”, Djure Djakovica 31, at 10:00 hours.

09:30 – 10:00 Registration of participants

Efficiency in Public Procurements

- 10:00 – 10:05 Introductory notes – prof. Vladimir Goati, PhD – President of Transparency Serbia
- 10:05 – 10:25 Opening words – Mr. Milan Parivodic, Minister for International Economic Relations of Republic of Serbia
- 10:25 – 10:40 System of Public Procurements in Serbia today and perspectives – Mr. Predrag Jovanovic, PhD – Director of the Public Procurement Office of the Republic of Serbia
- 10:40 – 10:50 Presentation of the results of the survey “Evaluation of the system of public procurements in Serbia” – Mr. Srecko Mihajlovic, CESID
- 10:50 – 11:00 Contribution of Transparency Serbia in more transparent and efficient public procurements in Serbia and recommendations for further improvements – Mr. Nemanja Nenadic – Programme Director of Transparency Serbia
- 11:00 – 11:15 Coffee break

Enforcement of Anticorruption Legal Framework in Serbia (press conference)

- 11:15 – 11:20 What comes after the deadline for political parties to submit their financial reports? – prof. Vladimir Goati, PhD
- 11:20 – 11:30 Conflict of interests prevention – reports of public officials on their assets, comparative experiences in the neighboring countries, necessary steps in further law enforcement, necessity for appropriate regulation of the conflict of interests of employees in public service – Mr. Nemanja Nenadic, Programme Director of Transparency Serbia
- 11:30 – 11:40 Promotion of the “Guide to Free Access to Information Law” and announcement of the third round of the survey – Mr. Nemanja Nenadic

Questions and answers

Cocktail